

RUSSIA NEEDS THREE THINGS FROM AMERICA

Money, Ammunition and Railway Rolling Stock Are Primary Necessities for Which Allied Government Turns to U. S., Declares Foreign Minister.

(By Associated Press.)
 PETROGRAD, Friday, April 20, via London, April 21. (Delayed.)—Money, ammunition and railway rolling stock are the primary necessities for which Russia now is turning to America for assistance in obtaining.

"If America can help supply us with these," said Paul N. Milukoff, the Russian Foreign Minister, to the Associated Press today, "she will not only have added greatly to the services she already has extended to our allies, but will materially help Russia to defeat Germany on the eastern front."

"Russia has been crippled during the last year by lack of adequate facilities for transportation. If the United States can send us rolling stock it will immediately help us to mobilize the resources of the country to their full efficiency. In addition to this, she can help protect the trade routes between America and Russia and expedite the sending of ammunition to Archangel and Vladivostok. It will be another valuable service rendered."

"The new loan which America is to make to Russia already is under discussion, and although not definitely arranged, it promises to be according to the most satisfactory terms. We are grateful for this. Other means of assistance I do not regard as quite so important."

"We have all the men we need, and expeditionary forces had better be sent to other fronts, although the presence of a small military mission to symbolize the new union between Russia and America, against the common foe would be most appropriate."

MIGHT ALSO SEND INDUSTRIAL EXPERTS
 "The sending of railroad men and industrial experts might also be useful, but this is not of primary importance."

"It would be naive to deny or underestimate the serious difficulties and the many instances of abuse of democratic principles which have occurred since the revolution, but through all these difficulties one can discern a gradual awakening of the people to sober patriotism and effort. The government sons-de-Champagne. French detachments penetrated the German lines and brought back forty prisoners.

"The night was relatively calm over the remainder of the front."

GERMAN COUNTERATTACK
 (By Associated Press.)
 LONDON, April 21.—A German counter-attack against the British holding the village of Gonnelleu was repulsed, and many German dead were left in front of the British position, according to the official report from British headquarters to-night. Further advances are recorded east of Fampoux and southwest of Lens.

VILLAGE OF GONNELLEU CAPTURED BY BRITISH
 (By Associated Press.)
 LONDON, April 21.—British troops last night captured the village of Gonnelleu, on the front between St. Quentin and Cambrai, it was officially announced to-day. A number of prisoners were taken in the sharp fighting here.

The statement reads:
 "We captured the village of Gonnelleu last night after sharp fighting, taking also a number of prisoners. An enemy party attempted to enter our trenches in the neighborhood of Fauquissart, but was repulsed. Artillery fire continued on both sides at a number of places during the night."

STRONG ARTILLERY FIRING ON WHOLE RIVER AISE FRONT
 (By Associated Press.)
 BERLIN, April 21 (via London).—Yesterday afternoon, says the official statement issued to-day by the German army staff, "strong artillery firing was commenced on the whole River Aisne front and also in the Champagne. On the Chemin-des-Dames and in the Champagne, enemy attacks failed."

"Between Loos and the Arras-Cambrai railway line," the statement adds, "there was a gradual increase in the artillery bombardment."

DEATH PARTS COMEDIANS
 Fred Stone Sees His Old Pal, Dave Montgomery, Leave Life's Stage Forever.
 (By Associated Press.)
 CHICAGO, April 21.—Fred Stone planned to-day to accompany the body of his dead partner, David Montgomery, the comedian, to New York, where it will be buried in Woodlawn Cemetery. Attached at the hospital where Montgomery died yesterday told of a scene between Montgomery and Stone—partners for twenty-two years—which preceded Montgomery's death. Stone had reproached himself for not ending his tour here so as to remain with his friend. Montgomery, who had become conscious after hours of coma, protested, and said:

"Fred, you've sacrificed enough for me in recent years. I know that you've been the whole show for a long time—that people went to see you, and I've simply been paid as part owner of the old trade mark. I know that you've refused offers from other managers that would have given you for yourself my income as well as your own, and that you turned them down to be loyal to your old pal."

When Montgomery died, Stone said: "I've seen the end of the little fellow I know fight to a finish for life's biggest stake—life."

READY TO SPEED FORWARD SHIPBUILDING PROGRAM

Survey Throughout Country of Shipyard Facilities Completed for New Board.

MAMMOTH SCALE IS OUTLINED

Plan Is to Build Immediately 1,000 Wooden Cargo Vessels of Approximately 3,000,000 Gross Tons to Augment Merchant Marine.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Surveys of shipyard facilities throughout the country, completed to-night by the United States Shipping Board furnished convincing evidence that shipbuilders are ready to speed forward Uncle Sam's program to augment the merchant marine by 1,000 wooden cargo ships of approximately 3,000,000 gross tons.

The council of workmen and soldiers' deputies has no authority, but consults with us in making recommendations which we sometimes reject and sometimes accept. The council plays an extremely important part in the present situation, since by acting as a safety valve for all the Socialist and radical elements, it is holding the country back from anarchy. Except for a few members, this body is in sympathy with the government.

NOT TO BE REGARDED AS MOVE FOR SEPARATE PEACE
 "In Russia, as in other countries, there are two groups of Socialists—the national Socialists, who favor war, and the international Socialists, who favor peace with Germany is absurd. A small number of Socialists undoubtedly will attend the international conference at Stockholm, just as isolated groups of men met before and during the war to discuss peace, but they will not represent any large element in this country."

In conclusion, the Russian Foreign Minister alluded to the possibility of a decent union with the Germans in other words, saying:

"The Germans undoubtedly are making plans for some kind of a move on the northern front, but I do not believe for a moment in yielding to the panicky belief that the Germans will reach Petrograd."

BRAZILIANS IN BATTLE WITH GERMAN COLONISTS
 Zone of Fighting Extends Over Entire Southern Portion of Country. Many Killed on Both Sides.

BUENOS AIRES, April 21.—German colonists of the several large German communities in Southern Brazil are engaged in desperate warfare with native civilians, who in many cases are being offered by Brazilian army men. Many have been killed on both sides. The zone of the fighting, which extends to-day, was extended over the entire southern portion of Brazil, from the city of Porto Alegre, on the coast of Uruguay, and on the Brazilian-Argentine border. As in Porto Alegre, the German colonists of Uruguay have been fighting two days against the citizens, defending themselves and their wives and children against hundreds of unorganized natives, who surround the barricaded buildings and pour fire from pistols and rifles against the calculating fire of the German rifles. The rising in Southern Brazil against the Germans now has become general, and the fighting, all reports agree, has reached a stage of actual warfare.

Here he found many working at top speed in double shifts to get out government orders. Assurances were given him that the order of the Shipping Corporation as well as that of the navy will be given preference over all private contracts.

Mr. Russell H. Rawlings, President & Sales Manager, The Kline Kar Sales Co., Richmond, Va.

My dear Sir:

I am pleased to say that I own a Kline Roadster purchased in April, 1916.

I have driven this car now about eight months for several thousand miles, and have not had any tire trouble, the same tires being on the car that originally came with same.

I have been getting an average of about fifteen miles on a gallon of gas. I have not spent a penny on the engine or in keeping the car in repair.

This is the third roadster I have had, and is decidedly the best ever.

Yours sincerely,

Turkey Is Latest to Break With U.S.
 Ottoman Government Said to Have Notified American Embassy at Constantinople.

(By Associated Press.)
 BASEL, SWITZERLAND, April 21 (via Paris).—A dispatch from Constantinople dated to-day says the Ottoman government has notified the American embassy that, following the example of its ally, Austria-Hungary, it has broken diplomatic relations with the United States.

WASHINGTON EXPECTS SUCH ACTION BY TURKEY
 (By Associated Press.)
 WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Turkish embassy here early this afternoon had no information regarding the reported severance of diplomatic relations between the United States and the Constantinople government. Such action by Turkey has been expected, however, and officials of the embassy expressed no surprise when informed of the nature of the dispatch from Basel.

The Bulgarian legation also was without advice defining the attitude of Bulgaria toward the United States.

AMERICAN AMBASSADOR WILL IN CONSTANTINOPLE
 (By Associated Press.)
 LONDON, April 21.—The Turkish government, on Friday evening, officially informed the American embassy that diplomatic relations with the United States had been broken off, according to a Berlin dispatch forwarded by Reuters' correspondent at Amsterdam. American Ambassador Elihu, who is suffering from typhus fever, the report adds, will have to remain some time in Constantinople. The ambassador's condition has shown some improvement.

 Slinger of Barbara Wright Put to Death. After Fifteen-Hour Effort to Save His Life.

OSSENING, N. Y., April 21.—Petrius von der Corput was put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing State Prison here at 12:34 P. M. to-day for the murder of Barbara Wright in New York City, after eleven-hour efforts to save his life had failed.

Attorneys representing the humanitarian cult, which enlisted the influence of Minister van Rappard, of the Netherlands, in its efforts in the condemned man's behalf, and appealed to Governor Whitman for a reprieve, made a vain effort to obtain a court order for a review of the case on the ground that Von der Corput was insane. The execution had been set for 11 o'clock, and the delay of more than an hour and a half was given in response to a telephoned request from Justice Jenks in New York, who notified the authorities that he was hearing argument on a writ of habeas corpus applied for by the humanitarian cult in Von der Corput's behalf.

Upon the receipt of word that Justice Jenks had denied the application, the execution was immediately ordered.

was their hope the lessons they had learned in the war at such cost might be of service to this country in avoiding similar mistakes. Similarly, as one official expressed it, the commission was moved by exactly the same feelings which raised the Stars and Stripes to the flag tower of the Parliament Building in London—the first time a foreign flag has ever flown there.

Secretary Balfour, a tall, white-haired man of sixty-nine years, who has held the highest posts in the empire since he first entered Parliament forty-three years ago, saw to-day the completion of one of his life's hopes expressed under vastly different circumstances on January 15, 1896, when he was largely instrumental in averting war between England and America over the Venezuela dispute.

"It cannot but be," he said, "that those whose national roots go down into the same past as ours, who share our language, our literature, our laws, our religion, everything that makes a nation great, it cannot but be that they will come when they will feel that they and we have a common duty to perform, a common office to fulfill among the nations of the world."

BALFOUR OUTLINES GENERAL HOPES FOR CONFERENCE
 While unable to grant a regular interview before presenting himself to President Wilson, Mr. Balfour consented to say a few words as to his general hopes for the conference and the fundamental purposes behind it. A verbatim copy follows:

"All will agree that my first duty as head of a diplomatic mission is to pay my respects to the head of the state to which I have been sent, and no public expression of opinion on points of policy would, I think, be useful or even tolerable until I have had the honor of conferring with your President, and learning his views. I have not come here to make speeches or to indulge in interviews, but to do what I can to make co-operation easy and genuine between those who are striving with all their power to bring about a lasting peace by the only means that can secure it, namely, a successful war."

"Without, however, violating the rule I have just laid down, there are two things which I may permit myself to say—one, on my own behalf, the other on behalf of my countrymen in general.

"On my own behalf, let me express the deep gratification I feel at being called in any capacity whatever with events which associate our countries in a common effort for a great ideal.

"On behalf of my countrymen, let me express our gratitude for all that the citizens of the United States of America have done to mitigate the lot of those who, in the allied countries, have suffered from the cruelties of the most deliberately cruel of all wars. To name no others, the efforts of Mr. Gerard to alleviate the condition of British and other prisoners of war in Germany, and the administrative genius which Mr. Hoover has unflinchingly devoted to the relief of the unhappy Belgians and French in the territories still in enemy occupation, will never be forgotten; while an inexhaustible stream of charitable effort has supplied medical and nursing skill to the service of the wounded and the sick."

REJOICES TO THINK DAYS OF NEUTRALITY ARE ENDED
 "These are the memorable doings of a beneficent neutrality. But the days of neutrality, I rejoice to think, at an end; and the first page is being turned in a new chapter in the history of mankind. Your President, in a most apt and vivid phrase, has proclaimed that the world must be made safe for democracy. Democracy, wherever they are to be found, and not least the democracies of the British empire, will hail the proclamation as a happy augury. That self-governing communities are not to be treated as negligible simply because they are small; that the ruthless domination of one unscrupulous power imperils the future of civilization, and the liberties of mankind are truths of political ethics which the bitter experience of war is burning into the souls of all freedom-loving peoples. This is a great people should have thrown themselves wholeheartedly into this mighty struggle, prepared for all the efforts and sacrifices that may be required to win success for this most righteous cause is an event at once so happy and so momentous that only the historian of the future will be able, as I believe, to measure its true proportions."

(Signed) "PAUL N. BALFOUR"

EXPECTED IN WASHINGTON EARLY THIS AFTERNOON
 WASHINGTON, April 21.—Foreign Minister Balfour and the other members of the commission sent to America by Great Britain are expected to arrive in Washington at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon on a special train.

The landing of the distinguished party on this continent was announced to-day by the state department, and in a day or two there will be a definite statement concerning the series of great war conferences for which the commissions have come and of the entertainments arranged in their honor. Word was received to-day that Sir George Foster, acting Prime Minister of Canada, and Sir Joseph Pope, Under-Secretary of External Affairs of the Dominion, would reach here to-morrow to meet and confer with the British officials.

Secretary Lansing received to-night this telegram from Mr. Balfour, sent in reply to a letter of greeting:

"Allow me to thank you most cordially for the warm expressions of welcome from the government and people of the United States conveyed in the letter handed me. Please convey to the President my deep appreciation of their friendly sentiments, and tell him with what great pleasure I accept on behalf of myself and my mission the generous offer of hospitality made by the President on behalf of the nation."

"May I add an expression of the profound satisfaction with which I find myself on American soil at this crisis in the history of the world?"
